The same beginning
Will end in diverging outcomes
So chaotic at the core

The truth of it all
Circumstances changes like the wind
So dodge them blows or suck 'em up

The wings that lead to A large-scale chain reaction
So you never stood a chance?

The truth of it all
Circumstances changes like the wind
So dodge them blows or suck 'em up
To dare is to live
Petrieved you might as well be dead
So dodge them blows or suck 'em up
To dare is to live

Carry on

All I know, all I learned, leads to this...
Don't take for granted what tomorrow brings
Look deep inside, find what's right just for you
Don't live in fear no, but never stop the flow
