With evasive smiles
Faking well-kept lies
This time, cast all aside
And wash the blood off my hands

In your deep brown eyes
Lies my paradise
And all that matters to me
Unfold, revealed, when you're near
When you're near

Falling, crawling
I'm losing ground, watch it all come down
Kneeling, feeling
You're all around, let's fight or die in this town

Witnessed heaven break
Burned down every gate
But what you told me that night
Uncut, unsealed, frail but right
Something right

Falling, crawling
I'm losing ground, watch it all come down
Kneeling, feeling
You're all around, let's fight or die in this town

We shall stand our ground this time
Yeah we shall stand our ground this time

We're picking up the pieces. It's not too late
We'll pick 'em up again. Take my hand
We're picking up the pieces. Won't let go again

Falling, crawling
I'm losing ground, watch it all come down
Kneeling, feeling
You're all around, let's fight or die in this town
