We came to reveal your face to expose your garbage race.
Beneath your armor you are wick there is more to it that you can take.

So step back and yield the way cause something wicked comes your way Fold back,bow your head POSERS GENOCIDE!

Are you women or man too much make up -i cant tell you claim that you are metal but you sound weak just bunch of posers-you make me sick!!

Inside the circle we were born brought by violence and devils horns.

You have to have it in your heart is not a fashion -it's an art we are playing fast,we're playing loud that's what thrash is all about !!!

Inside the circle we were born
brought by violence and devils horns We face the fire,we stand strong band of brothers -we'll never fall Roaring for battle ,posers beware !!
We'll soak in blood your bleached blond hairs !!!
