"Wait For Me"

Girl come to me in a dream,
and I don't even know her name.
A pretty mark upon her breast
to signify her from the rest.
Her and I are just the same,
Building bridges out of fame.
She stands upon a dinner plate and tells me that I'll have to wait.

Wait for me,
I know it won't be easy.
What a thing to believe in a dream.

Perhaps I knew her long ago,
I wrote her poems at 9 years old.
But then I did become a man,
and let her slip right through my hands.
I practiced all my wit and charm,
Had many girls on every arm.
I learned the depths of love and hate,
but never did learn how to wait.

Wait for you,
You say it like it's easy to do.
what a thing to believe in a dream.

I have you know that all my life
I have been searching for a wife.
A partner and a confidant,
A girl who wants the things I want,
A girl who doesn't come along,
'Cause she's already where I'm going.
Stand upon a broken stage
I bet you darling please, please wait.

Wait for me,

I know it won't be easy.
What a thing to believe in a dream.
I believe in a dream.
