2x

No matter how cold your days are, your love is fire
keep your heart strong
I will continue loving you
No matter how tired your wings are from the long journey
Keep your heart strong
I will continue loving you

2x

Dreams of our life
If they are from our heart
They will live and we will too
Dreaming is our right
If we stopped dreaming
If we stopped loving
Not even friends or anything
The world would still be there

2x

Reach out for my hand, and in the future everything will be easier
Keep ur heart strong
I will continue loving you
Don't betray love and never hate no matter what
