"GRAVITY"

Visit "GRAVITY" on MotoLyrics.com

I guess you could say Ive gotten older
Thats the biggest change that really hurt me
The things I held close and the dreams that mattered
No longer have the same effect on me

By chance circumstance we both come together
Two desperate hearts and souls forever

I guess you could say Im a bit more weathered
A bit more fearful of the man I find in me
The things that seemed so simple and so easy
Now suffocate me with complexity

By chance circumstance we both come together
Two desperate hearts and souls forever

Hold me close in your memories
Hold me tighter in your dreams
And the rope I walk it gets so hard to talk
When youre defying gravity

I guess you could say Ive gotten angry
At the world thats all around me
Everywhere I look and everyone I meet
Always wants to avoid responsibility

Hold me close in your memories
Hold me tighter in your dreams
And the rope I walk it gets so hard to talk
When youre defying gravity
