I never lost and raise a boss and never will cause I'm still the champion

My pimp put panic on whoever, build in a rhyme systematically designed to blow your mind, disputable world heater's a study you know you love it the living weapon
beneath those ...rap session you sweet like... stupid from ...disturber on your homies rather than... escape with your dignity cheat on your ...if it's written by just a , cruise hard to see it's a mystery to me how you call yourself a mc you are who you intended to be, full fill your functions to blood stain looking like the map on the wall of a new continents apart
you ...make you look artist but opportunist rappers came and went, I'm simply, heaven sent me my ...spit, so beautiful intricate, came into the can to overload your circuit ,quick you rookie tough is really fuck way to stakes are take are through you are the lou past pat, posting as ,
...my fist fed your face , old nose blood ...bad and with that said, cruise they bo who black and blue off led a man above man with a mike in my hand in the crowd but with no legs to stand talk about it, you know you love it when they talk it , and you wanna see I guess then we agreed to disagree dress cold like , cause fellows got me looking ...blind
...in the path, I'ma turn some loops...
,for asses like fresh water, little trauma out of path
...try to come off no good, and protect no wood, like a toothless beaver, better to search retire

another pair of shoes on the wire , turning , to diamonds
So I look back and they ain't gaining on me,
...with the bow, I'm feeling festive so kiss my ass on the mistletoe, when it comes to bad news I'm the pressure eminence but , make me, better than you it just makes me better at what I do bored been... and you clubs look out , your flat tire routine got hooked up to a car battery attached at the nipples I don't wanna stare on the way turn.
..saying never lost and raise a boss and never will cause I'm still the champion Still the champion, still the champion, still the champion Super star destroyer

You ain't won till my audio 2, you bought blame on beat can't seem to press delete, so I rhyme with the bigger more better than orange juice
at the brushing your teeth but you , anticipation, says my name but that's the Kingston
...making crack dealers turn crack addicts, one of the first to witness me One mike, we can handle this, cause we both have been ,
but now the sad is , to panic or sort of I face and take pleasure into deception I found the souls sniff familiar, to a thick plane and foreplay
you told me, my entertainment, , fiction into the man un sparred
...scare crows, shabby and no clothes with the neuro toxins cocktail of components, a fertilizer, deadly , read the viper I bite you to make a belt out of him, the whole duck, my , cause there's no venom enemies whack
like a war , the imprint, but there's empty, sounds , when I'ma , smack the mc best believe or air I breathe thought he was fly... combust with sky
start killing in a stroke like seizure, is when the fire embrace flying out of my face like s shotgun blast abortion your brittle... breaks, you think popping a , mc is why you blowing a door off with her poo toy.
