Solo el amor (English)

For love I'd do almost anything.
I'd cross the widest of oceans
For love, I'd fly with an broken wing
Just to taste it for a moment.
For love, I'd turn back the strongest tide;
There's no storm I wouldn't weather.
"Cause it's more than a gleam in someone's eye
It's what holds us all together.
But I've only known once in my lifetime
Love in it's purest form.
He came here for me
Suffered and then died under a crown of thorns

-Chorus-

Solo el amor only love can save me
Conquering death and the sting of the grave
Kingdoms will fall and tongues will cease,
But through it all eternity love will remain
Solo el amor when all else has failed me,
Will take me to places that I've never dreamed
Healing my wounds and setting me free
There is nothing else worth living for

Solo el amor

II

For love the hope of humanity made the lame to walk again
For love he settled the raging sea
And he came the sinner's friend
For love he drank of his father's cup
With all my shame on his shoulders
And he offered forgiveness through his she'd blood
Tell me, is it any wonder
That I've only known once in my lifetime
Love in it's purest form?

He came here for me, suffered and then died
Under a crown of thorns

-Chorus-

Solo el amor only love can save me
Conquering death and the sting of the grave
Kingdoms will fall and tongues will cease,
But through it all eternity love will remain
Solo el amor when all else has failed me,
Will take me to places that I've never dreamed
Healing my wounds and setting me free
There is nothing else worth living for

Bridge

Solo el amor, when all else has failed me
Will take me to places that I've never dreamed
Healing my wounds and setting me free
There's nothing else worth living for
Solo el amor

Only love
