

Sanctus Real "We're Tying"

Visit "We're Tying" on MotoLyrics.com

There's a familiar progression to the similar lives that we all lead
We're trying hard to become someone we can't be You won't find grace without honesty

Everyone wants reality, so here it is, I believe that nobody is good

We are liars, and thieves, we're destroying the peace
But we're trying

It's the same regression to the lives that we all lead Everyone makes mistakes, but we find grace
We believe that there's redemption
If you want reality, here it is, I believe that nobody is good

There is nothing in our blood that makes the heart beat strong enough
Apart from grace, apart from love
I believe in grace
I believe with love that we can do good
