Phillip Sandifer

I'm gonna write you a love song

For to you it draws me close

I will always have you and I know, I know

To have your arms around me

Are the words that I will write

For I know that you will be holding me tonight

Chorus

I can't always feel you by my side

But I know that you will be holding me tonight

And you know I love you more

Than anyone could ever know

So listen to my love song

Listen to my love song

Listen to my love song, let it take me home

Tomorrow could never be the same for I have you

And I know that I will never be alone

But sometimes Lord

When I catch myself lonely and blue

I remember my love song to you

Chorus
