Sometimes see her down by the river
The water dances on her skin
She can captivate you with her eyes
But she never lets you in
In the dark she lingers
Like a tear without a soul

And I want a lonely girl
Trying to find her way
From this mixed up messed up world
And I've seen so many faces just like hers
So many broken hearts in the world
And I want a lonely what a lonely girl

He said lately she's been watching the weather
The weather doesn't know what to do
'cause sometimes when it's cold outside
That's when she's feeling blue
But I see through her sadness deep within her soul
All she's wants to have is someone she can love to make whole

And I want a lonely girl
Trying to find her way
From this mixed up messed up world
And I've seen so many faces just like hers
So many broken hearts in the world
And I want a lonely what a lonely girl

Isn't it incredible'
Oh isn't it regrettable
She finds sweet love and then she lets it go
And I've seen so many faces just like hers
So many broken hearts in the world
And I what a lonely what a lonely day

And I what a lonely girl
Trying to find her way
From this mixed up messed up world
And I've seen so many faces just like hers
So many broken hearts in the world

And I what a lonely what a lonely girl

And I what a lonely what a lonely girl
