I take the train
I don't know why
maybe i
simply don't wanna fly
anymore

every day
an endless dream
of cigarettes and magazines well i'm on the road

i wonder why
you didn't call today
every time it rains
i start to pray

show me how you're feeling
show me no disguise
i am always dreaming
of the lovelight in your eyes
i'm lonely in the morning
i lie awake at night
I am always dreaming
of the lovelight in your eyes

i'm rollin on time goes by
i see my life
the sorrow left behind
miss you so

you do me cold
i'm warm inside
you must know
that i can be alright

on my own

il wonder why
you didn't call today
every time it rains

i am always dreaming
of the lovelight in your eyes
i'm lonely in the morning
I lie awake at night
I am always dreaming
