Count on my kisses
and children at play
Do you Remember?
its so far away.....

Give us back to the truth
Cause divided we fall

Sisters and Brothers are growing so tall
Strangers and lovers made fools of us all

Where is the Laughter?
that ends with our pain.
where are the Summers?
without any rain.
can they ever return ?
all those years i recall..
Sisters and Brothers are growing so tall
Strangers and lovers made fools of us all

If you can hear me, I need you right now.....

Sisters and Brothers are growing so Tall
Stangers and Lovers made fools of us all
