You tried to be so negative
Never being positive
You tried to lie me, avoid any problems
Try to be more cooler than me

You never showed me the path of truth
Wondering if I ever knew
But now this has changed
Never be trusted
You are and will always be
Lying me

And everytime you lie
I get all angry
Never say I lie

I thought we were best friends
I thought this is a trust law don't Ever lie
Cause' I know exactly when you do that

And everytime you lie
I get all angry
Don't hesitate

We're here for each other
But I guess this is over
We had so much in common
But I guess this is a goodbye

And everytime you lie
I get all angry
Never say I lie

And when you come around
I fake a smile
Never realize I know that

And everytime you lie
I get all angry
Never say I lie

This used to be OUR life
But I guess it's over now
Don't get me wrong
I wanna be friends
But how could we be if you lie to me?
How could we be, how?

And everytime you lie
I get all angry
Never say I lie

If I'd lie I'd do it for repay
Cause' when you broke my heart
And never cared
Cause when you broke my heart and never cared
