I want to move on
Not realizing I was moving too slow
Tried to hang on
But there was nothing left for me to hold

It's such a shame that you can't be with me tonight
I'm spinnin' round in cycles
Hope you change your mind
Before the show is over
I look around, it's you I thought I find

I've Been on standby
Not realizing I was moving too slow
Instant replay
But there was nothing I can do about it

Still in denial
I can't believe that you can do this to me
No lights ahead
I've been looking forward but I could not see

I have been waiting for you all night
Under the glow of the satellite
