VERSE 1

my eye is bigger than the view finder my heart is than the lie my arms will hold the world together my dream is quiet as a sigh

CHORUS

i know why the truth hurts i know why you cry you'll get through the madness just look through my eye

i swallow all the poison rumors i look the shadow in the eye i shake the hand that writes the letters i bleed to keep this song alive

[chorus]

my heart is heavy with the lie my voice will sing this song forever my love will keep the dream alive

[chorus]
