We are here together,
It's been so long
I've waited forever,
For this day to come
And I won't leave you
Alone tonight
You're my heart
Moving life inside

We won't fall again,
If you will let me lead
We'll fall in love
If you will hold to me
Never let go
Endure the pain to find
No pain at all

Forget all the records,
Previous lovers
Look into my eyes,
To dissolve the others
Cause I know where
You have laid tonight
I'm just one step away tonight

We won't fall again,
If you will let me lead
We'll fall in love
If you will hold to me
Never let go
Endure the pain to find
No pain at all

Say that you need me,
and I can give you everything
your heart's been craving
Cause once I've held your hand
I cannot stand to see it waving goodbye

Please don't go
Stay with me

Just stay with me
Just stay

We won't fall again,
If you will let me lead
We'll fall in love,
If you will hold to me
Never let go
Endure the pain to find
No pain at all
