Stop the clock
Take time out
Time to regroup
Before you loose the bout

Face the thrill
Back it up
Time to refocus
Before they lap it up

Year's are getting shorter
The lines on your face are getting longer
Feel like you're treading water
But the riptide's getting stronger

Don't panic, don't jump ship
Can't find it, like taxes
At least it happens
Only once in your life

They're singing, "Happy birthday"
You just wanna lay down and cry
Not just another birthday, it's 30/90
Why can't you stay 29
Hell, you still feel like you're 22
Turn 30 in 1990
Bang! You're dead, what can you do?
What can you do?
What can you do?

Clear the runway
Make another pass
Try one more hook
Before you're out of gas

Friends are getting fatter
Hairs on you head are getting thinner
Feel like a clean up batter
On a team that ain't a winner

Don't freak out, don't strike out

Can't fight it, like city hall
At least you're not alone
Your friends are there too

They're singing, "Happy birthday"
You just wish you could run away
Who cares about a birthday?
But 30/90, hey
Can't you be optimistic?
You're no longer eons of you
Turn 30, 1990
Voom! You're passes
What can you do?
What can you do?
What can you do?

Peter Pan and tinker bell
Which way to never never land?
Emerald city's gone to hell
Since the wizard blew off passed the map

On the streets you hear the voices
Lost children, crocodiles
But you're not into
Making choices, wicked witches
Poppy fields, or men behind the curtains
Tiger lilies, ruby slippers
Clock is ticking, that's for certain

They're singing, "Happy birthday"
I just wish it all were a dream
It feels much more like dooms day
What 30/90 seems
I'm dying for a twister
I don't see a rainbow, do you?
Turn 30 into 90

Look into my hands now
What the ball has passed
I want the spoils, but not too fast
The world is falling
It's now or never land
Why can't I stay till
The forever end?

30/90
30/90
30/90
30/90
30/90
30/90

What can I do?
What can I do?
