[Verse 1: 2 Chainz]

Wake up in the morning, roll a blunt and then I count bank
Pull out the garage, hit a button then the top faint
You ain't from the "A", all you really did was migrate Asking me if I'm great, yeah bitch I'm great Swerving down Peachtree, yeah bitch I'm straight Every day my birthday, yeah bitch I get cake
You better get dough, ho you know I taught you better Take all his cash, grab on his ass, write that trick a love letter
Came up off Ball and G, grewed up off Bun and C Got me a Chevy swapped feet twice the same week Shawty say she want me, shawty know I run things We used to wear the mask like Friday the 1-3
Then I found out I had that pimp in my bloodstream Got me one ho and then I got me a whole team Had a starting five with a bench on the side
So for every bitch I got, she got a bitch on the side

[Hook x2: 2 Chainz]

Pimp all day I even pimp in my sleep
When I wake up I smoke a blunt before I eat Ho don't violate, bitch you know I taught you better Take all his cash, grab on his ass, write that trick a little letter

[Verse 2: Bun B]

I got money on my mind, I got cash up on my brain
I got green up in my eyes and I ain't finna pass it mane Never let a penny pass, never let a dollar disappear
And if you don't understand me bitch I'll make it crystal clear
Coming down the Gulfway, passing by the Scale Co Candy on the car, nigga pop my trunk they have no Choice but to watch the neon lights with my name lit Pimp a ho, stack the dough, yeah I'm on that same shit Lames sit your ass up in the stands and eat a hot dog
This is for the big bosses boy and you are not hog Never been a eagle man, I never seen you soar Through the sky, looking super fly cause you paid off a whore

You're not a pimp, put that on Pimp, you a fraud Buying pussy on the side instead of tryna break the broad
We don't do that over here, matter fact we never did So keep your distance from the circle, we ain't with that tricking shit
Bitch

[Hook]

[Verse 3: Big KRIT]

Your eyes wide open, scopin', ropin' hold that thoroughbred Pussy wet like April shower, twerking power, thorough head Get deep in the mind of a pro, take her where she never been but where she wanna go Unless she in the comfort of a monster with a mouthpiece, then I reach her on stroll Pimp shit get rich and quick, tell a bad bitch how I feel Never laid back, gotta make a quota, if it ain't a high roller keep that pussy sealed So motherfucker can you buy that? At the rhythm of a bass drum
Hit the club buy the bar like a star take that other nigga bitch like dare that nigga say something I seen pimps and you ain't one, you're not close to me I'm everything a real nigga supposed to be You act like you did everything you could, but she was supposed to leave At her neck like rosaries if she ain't where she supposed to be, I put her on game She devoted to the notion of roller coasters, and that won't change
With my trunk on bang, sun on shine, break a bitch down like a Garcia y Vega Fill her up with the gumption to hit the ground running, and go and get me some gators Yeah suits with the tailor, that fit the frame of a nigga all about his paper Forever pimping, never slipping, forever recruiting these top notch hoes in the majors
