Sunlight through the window
Across from your bed
Beauty is still, can you see it?
What more can you want?

Is this real life?
Is this real life?

Heartbeats of your children
Asleep in the next room
Trust so still, can you hear it?
What more can you want?

Is this real life?
Is this real life?

Why do we seek up ecstasy
In all the wrong places?
Why is it hard to see
That heaven can have simpler faces?

One breath of an angel
Awake next to you
Love's so still, can you feel it?
What more do you want?

Is this real life?
Is this real life?
Is this real
Is this real life?

Is this real life?
Real life
Is this real life?
Is this real, is this real, is this
Is this real life?
