"When I Was Young"

It's amazing how much time love saves you at first
When you rediscover your reason to work And your aimless dreaming has found a targeting And normalize and greed a function return Came on early, quarter to two
I don't need more wine, I'm coming for you

We carry pictures in our pretend wallet Have ourselves and heavily edited ... eat with better handwriting and longer days at the park
And dinners with no drama the professor and Marianne Came home early, a quarter to two
I don't need more wine, I'm coming for you

When I was young, I didn't know if I was better off with sleep over I've grown up, I wonder what was that world I was dreaming off
When I was young, I didn't know if I was better off with
sleep over
I've grown up, I wonder what was that world I was dreaming of
What was that world I was dreaming of What was that world I was dreaming of
... regular shirt, same... last year, more so When I was young, I didn't know if I was better off with
sleep over
I've grown up, I wonder what was that world I was
dreaming off
What was that world I was dreaming of What was that world I was dreaming of.
