Why do I stare at you this way?
It's strange to me why my eyes stray
They stray to you here all I see
You're all there is when you're near me
Oh love, if I keep watching you please forgive me now
It seems so right to do
If I said "I love you" I wouldn't be surprised
Cause tonight I'm all hang up in your green eyes
Why do I stare at you like this?
If I should leave would you be missed
Would there be nothing left for me?
With you mine I need nothing to see
Oh love, no need to be concerned
Don't you know by now the play one always burned
What I feel for you will pass with your good-byes
But tonight I'm all hung up in your green eyes
Yes tonight I'm all hung up in your green eyes
