"Loss"

I stay to see your face again,
I stay so we can talk again,
Every minute of every day,
Every second of every year,
I will cry again.

Forever and wherever you are,
I'll never say our last goodbye.
All the screaming that I did not scream.
All the anger that I never revealed
I will bleed again.

I miss you,
I feel you,
I need you.
I can't and will never forget.

Love is gone, it's painful, it hurts.
Sll this pain I've buried it in my soul.
There's no jesus, there's no god,
There's nobody that can bring you back.

I trust you as I didn't before.
