We communicated with fans and drew diagrams
Rapped to live bands and shook many hands
Analysed as the sands of time fell in the hourglass
How many rappers can last?
When you throw a pebble in the river the ripples expand
I must develop a style they understand
Not too difficult or scientific
And not your typical but still lyrical
So I can maintain respect on a street level
The world's the river and my words the pebbles
When they connect watch the ripples spread
And keep spreading till it vanishes
Create an infinite thought
And dreams that I must chase so suffer the consequence
Build a fence as a form of self-defence
If ever they attack we don't respond
If ever we attack, we attack with rhyme bombs
24 Hours every day
We organise, eat, sleep, communicate
Put together beats, rhymes, cuts

Analyse, build, attack

I figure self analysis and journeys that are hazardous

Build the character while on stage I'm like a scavenger

Amateur damager, cannibal animal

Lyrical murderer, maniac, volatile

Free flowing, mind blowing, crowd catching,

Captivating audiences with rhymes and scratching

Gift of the gab, working harder than your average rapper

I'm 39 steps ahead of you

My brains ticking constantly

Sometimes it feels like its flooded with supreme intelligence

Take me to your dealer, I know what I need now

Call me clever coz I listen when you talk

They shaped you, moulded you

I stuck to my original plans and kept digging

Deeper, further, there's mud in my eyes

The tunnel vision is my escape route

I'm leaving forever soon as I get a chance to

24 Hours every day

We organise, eat, sleep, communicate

Put together beats, rhymes, cuts

Analyse, build, attack

Separate the good from the bad

Innovate, create styles you wish you had

Exhibit A: Wordplay

Crush a fool any day

Take your breath away before I make my getaway

Anyway, further evidence, exhibit B

Cross the enemy lines, make them remember me

Double check facts killing fads and phoney acts

You weren't even born when I was backspinning and busting raps

Exhibit C my apology

I cleverly severe competition heavily

They'll never be better than me

Information held on analogue technology

Forthwith equality, understand my terminology

I plead insanity lyrical vanity

Speak with clarity I got multiple personalities

Whoever, whenever, whyever, whatever, however I feel

We react and remain forever

24 Hours every day

We organise, eat, sleep, communicate

Put together beats, rhymes, cuts

Analyse, build, plan, attack

24 Hours every day

We organise, eat, sleep, communicate

Put together beats, rhymes, cuts

Analyse, build, think, attack

(Scratching)
