Holding my breath
Last one I've got left
'Til I see you

Deliver my heart with the Pieces and parts of me left
Every last day seemed to carry the weight a lifetime
Watch from the ground
As the gold fluttered down from the sky

Sweet sun
Send me the moon
Empty the skies out
Bringing me one step closer to you
Send it soon
And I will breathe in, breathe out
'Til you come in and out
Of view
Of view

Inches away from you
Scared what I'll take from you, darling
I can live with your ghost
If you say that's the most I'll get

Darkness to light
Move from day into night to be near you
Still, here I stand
I am sinking like sand in your sea

Sweet sun
Send me the moon
Empty the skies out
Bringing me one step closer to you
Send it soon
And I will breathe in, breathe out
Until you come in and out
Of view
Of view

Never you mind where the evening should find us

Together, distance can't take what's hidden here
Safe in my chest

I'll wait for the day
When we finally say now or never
'Til then I'll be here wanting more
As I settle for atmosphere

Sweet sun
Send me the moon
Empty the skies out
Bringing me one step closer to you
Send it soon
And I will breathe in, breathe out

Of you
Of you
