The seeds are planted and the sun is shining
The paycheck's in the mail
The weekend's around the corner
And the house we want's for sale

A new movie's coming out on Friday
An old friend is back in town
And that smile you thought I'd lost
Well, it's been found

Chorus:

The best days are coming
The best days are coming, baby
They'll be like nothing we've ever seen
Made for living, laughing and loving
The best days are coming
For you and me

Ain't it something how the kids are growing
I wish we could keep 'em young
But it's fun to watch and wonder
What they'll become

A few years they'll up and move on
With luck, we'll still have our health
Along with a few grandbabies
And the house to ourselves

Repeat Chorus

When the shadow's long and the sun is setting
And we've given all we have
We'll let go, but we both know
It's no time for being sad, oh

Repeat Chorus Twice
