Used to think that I would be so sad
If you ever walked away
Used to think I needed you so bad
Did I say that I'd never leave you behind?
Well, just keep treatin' me unkind

'Cause fool, I'm a woman
And I'm bound to change my mind

With a woman it's imperative
You show her that you love her
If you don't, it's her prerogative
To change like the weather

I'm seeing the signs
You know I used to think
That love was blind

Well, fool, I'm a woman
And I'm bound to change my mind

You used to tell me
So many nights
You don't deserve me
Well, maybe you were right

Yesterday you offered me the world
Did you think I'd take it?
Now you treat me like some silly girl
Yeah, and that's where I'm drawing the line
You know, I used to think you were so fine

Well, fool, I'm a woman
And I'm bound to change my

Fool, I'm a woman
And I'm about to change my

Fool, I'm a woman
And I just changed my mind

And I'm about to change my mind

Yes, I'm about to change my mind
Yeah, I'm about to change my mind
Yes, I'm about to change my mind
