I never wanted to
But I said goodbye to you
It happens, people change
Sometimes their dreams
Go separate ways
They say all good things must end
Still, someday I thought I'd see your face again

I understand, I realize
It was the end of all those nights
With you here in my arms
Just the pounding of two hearts
Now that's all gone with the wind
Still, someday I thought I'd see your face again

I've got a phone
But no way to get a hold of you
I've got a letter
But no address that I can send it to

Tonight I'll look out to the stars
Can't help but wonder where you are
So much space and time between
All those used-to-be's
I know life goes on but then
Still, someday I thought I'd see your face again

Oh, I know life goes on but then
Still, someday I thought I'd see your face again
