I never knew how good it could be.
I never thought that you could be so into me.
The only time I breathe is when you're near Satisfied only when you here
In my arms
holding you so tight
In my arms
when you stay the night
In my arms
everything has changed
nothing will be the same
as long as you remain
In my arms
The simple things that mean so much to you
The innocence of making love so true Well you & I comes as no surprise the way I feel when I look into those eyes
In my arms
holding you so tight
In my arms
When you stay the night
In my arms
everything has changed
Nothing will be the same
as long as you remain
in my arms
No need to justify Anything we do
No need to complicate
The time I spend with you
In my arms
In my arms
In my arms
Everything has changed
Nothing will be the same
As long as you remain
In my arms
In my arms
