Say, "Do you love me like you really wonder?"
You say, "Do you need me like I'm going under?"
Like if you sank down deep, I would not pull you through
And if you were lost in the woods, I would not come find you

Well, baby you, you oughta know by now
That I've been loving you since I first learned how To open my mouth and speak the first game of hide
and seek
I said, "Look at this shiny thing that I have found"
Baby you, you oughta know by, you, you oughta know
my love by now

You say, "Stay forever like I'm going somewhere"
You say, "Don't forget me like I won't remember"
All the midnights and the mornings wide awake
Just memorizing the trace in your sweet face

Yeah, baby you, you oughta know by now
That I've been loving you since I first learned how To open my mouth and speak the first game of hide
and seek
I said, "Look at this shiny thing that I have found"
Baby you, you oughta know by, you, you oughta know
my love by now

You've got to have a little faith in me
You have got to believe

Baby you, you oughta know by now
That I've been loving you since I first learned how To open my mouth and speak, first game of hide and seek
I said, "Look at this shiny thing that I have found"
Baby you, you oughta know by, you, you oughta know by
You, you oughta know my love by now, by now

Oh baby, you oughta know by now
For so long, so long, so long, oh yeah

You oughta know by now
You oughta know by now
You oughta know by now
