There I was, ten years old
Waiting in my room for him to come home
I just knew he'd be so mad
Though I begged my mother not to, she told my dad

There was no denying I let him down
But instead of being angry
He put his arms around me and said

In the sunlight or the rain
Brightest nights or darkest days
I'll always feel the same way

Whatever road you may be on
No, you're never too far gone
My love is there wherever you may be
Just remember that you'll always be my baby

There I was, 21
Oh, I was so ashamed of what I'd done
On a country road parked one night
What started out so innocent, crossed the line

There was no denying, I let God down
But instead of being angry
He let His love surround me, and I heard

In the sunlight or the rain
Brightest nights or darkest days
I'll always feel the same way

Whatever road you may be on
No, you're never too far gone
My love is there wherever you may be
Just remember that you'll always be my baby
Yeah, yeah

There he is, my little man
I'm sure he'll get in trouble every now and then
And I pray to God that when he does
I'll be just as understanding as my father was

'Cause the last thing that I want to do is let him down
So instead of being angry
I'm gonna throw my arms around him, and I'll say

In the sunlight or the rain
Brightest nights or darkest days
I'll always feel the same way

Whatever road you may be on
No, you're never too far gone
My love is there wherever you may be
Just remember that you'll always be my baby
Be my baby
