Just trying to get used to you, ya not being here, but the day I get used to that is the day that I fear, I can't believe all we had, just disappeared, I feel every minute, every moment, everyday, since we both decided,
To go our own way, well I was wondering, do you ever feel like you made a mistake, Maybe everybody in the world will suddenly all get along,
Maybe every light ahead of me will be green from now on, Maybe the lotto will give me a win, Maybe we'll fall
in love again,
Stranger things have happened,
I can't make enough money, to by back my time, loosing it by the minute, dam near loosing my mind, but I still tell everyone, I'm doing fine, Not gonna say I haven't been thinking about you, this has been a hard one, a little tough to get through, but if I had it my way, none of this would ever do, Maybe everybody in the world will suddenly all get
along,
Maybe every light ahead of me will be green from now
on, Maybe the lotto will give me a win, Maybe we'll fall
in love again,
Stranger things have happened,
It was the dog days of summer, and my pour heart was ripe for the picking, yeah you know that it's over, But you don't realize the Love I was under,
Maybe everybody in the world will suddenly all get
along,
Maybe every light ahead of me will be green from now
on, Maybe the lotto will give me a win, Maybe we'll fall
in love again,
Stranger things have happened,
Maybe everything I've ever lost will come back to me, Maybe everything I'm looking for will come suddenly, you know anything is possible when, we could be together again,
Stranger things have happened,
It's happened...
