Tomorrow is here today, it's never gonna go away Today, tomorrow is here, what happens next has never been so clear

We pack fast in the back, we get us good traction
Forward motion is enough satisfaction At last you're waiting, waiting, waiting, around for something to happen
You're waiting, waiting, you're waiting around for something to happen

NO!

I wake up when I hear the air force flying low Landing in formation on my flow
I wake up and I set my watch that never moves This is what the world's been waiting for Tomorrow is here at last Does this mean time can never run out?

NO!

I wanna tell you about a ? leaks from the future of backwards trends like a belt in thrown away when the cymbals flash
Tomorrow, tomorrow, is here at last We're back in the past, in the back, it gets good traction
Forward motion is enough satisfaction
At last you're waiting, waiting, waiting around You're waiting, waiting, waiting, for something to happen
