

Sara Groves "Eyes Wide Open"

Visit "Eyes Wide Open" on MotoLyrics.com

I've got layers of lies that I don't even know about yet bathroom doors turned billboards no place left untouched without the mumblin tell me what I need, tell me what I want worship the things that we've made with our own hands in so deep I don't even know it, I don't even know it rubbing these sticks till the air is thick no spark no heart no inspiration

tell me what I need, tell me what I want worship the things that we made with our own hands

oh I'm gonna find the truth even if it kills me oh I gotta get a new view the only way I know to oh I gotta keep my eyes wide open keep my eyes wide open diggin in the dirt till it hurts won't come up for air don't care how long it takes me I get tired want to just get by can't I get by but I can't cuz there's a fire in my bones, fire in my bones burnin in my bones

when the lights come up on this town when the thing goes down wanna be found when the lights come up on this
when the lights come up on this town when the thing goes down wanna be found tryin when the lights come up wanna be telling the truth

Visit Sara Groves page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.