Rattle on the cage
Flicker the light
This kind of love keeps you up all night
You know somethin' ain't right

You call on a friend
Could you be so sure
That old line's been done before
You know somethin' ain't right

Can you feel it come coming
Can you feel it come here it comes
It's taken you forever though you're living so fast
And you're always in for the running in a race and comin last

Got buried alive
In somebody's world
There's too many people
And too many girls
Got nothing to hide
You know what to do
'Cause he loves himself
But he doesn't love you

You wanna be saved
Well don't be naive
It's your choice if you wanna leave you know
So don't you delay

You've taken a brunt
Of both your lives
It's not how you're supposed to compromise
So don't you delay

Can you feel it come coming
Can you feel it come here it comes
A little old stain will show you what he's done You'll never stay afloat but if you cave in while you're young

Got buried alive
In somebody's world
There's too many people
Too many girls
Got nothing to hide
You know what to do
'Cause he loves himself
But he doesn't love you

You couldn't take it if you thought you were the only one
Another second here this damage could be undone
You saw me coming but you didn't wanna see it come
You saw me coming but you didn't wanna see it come
You saw me coming but you didn't wanna see it come

Got buried alive
In somebody's world
There's too many people
Too many girls
Got nothing to hide
You know what to do
'Cause he loves himself

Got buried alive
In somebody's world
There's too many people
Too many girls
Got nothing to hide
You know what to do

Got buried alive
In somebody's world
There's too many people
Too many girls
Got nothing to hide
You know what to do
'Cause he loves himself
But he doesn't love you
