So here we go again
Same situation
And I can't drown in your drama no more

Let me make it clear
Just read my lips
This ain't what I'm looking for

So take it away
I don't wanna see the damage
Oh no, not today
I got better things to do
I'll sleep in peace
Cuz my conscience is clear
While you're dirty past catches up with you

So what did you think
I was too stupid to notice?
It's over now
It don't matter no more

On your way out
You can take your dirty laundry
I'll keep my dignity
Cuz that's the way my mama made me
That's the way my mama made me

I was raised to be strong
Created in the image
Of a woman who knows
How to stand on her own

Baby I deserve
Better than this
If you dim my flame
I'd rather be alone

I won't bow my head
Or give into your religion
I will burn bright
Cuz I'm made that way

If I let you get away
With treating me less than a lady
What would my mama say?

So what did you think
I was too stupid to notice?
It's over now
It don't matter no more
On your way out
You can take your dirty laundry

I'll keep my dignity
Cuz that's the way my mama made
That's the way my mama made me

I was taught to love myself
Accept nothing else
And you won't get the best of me
No, you won't get the best of me

So what did you think
I was too stupid to notice?
It's over now
On your way out
You can take your dirty laundry

I'll keep my dignity
Cuz that's the way my mama made
That's the way my mama made
That's the way my mama made me

Take it away
That's the way my mama made me
That's the way my mama made me
