How can I explain the sorrow and my pain

I believe that you and I should be together once again

Every night I pray, that you'll come to me

But the tears keep falling down my face, when you're not around

But now you're gone..gone away

All I do is wait for you each and every day

Ooh I've been waiting for your love

Wondering where you are, are you with another guy

Are you showing him the world

I've been waiting for your love, I wanna see your smile, brighten up my day

Yes I am waiting for your love

Yes I am waiting for your love

Didn't sleep last night

I waited by the phone, wondering where you are tonight

If you are alone, if I had another chance(another chance)

I'd never let you go

My heart's been broken in two..and its all because of you

Now you're gone..gone away

All I do is wait for you, each and every day

Now your'e gone, gone away

All I do is wait for you, each and everyday

Oh I've been waiting for your love

I'm wondering where you are, are you with another guy

Are you showing him the world

I've been waiting for your love

I wanna see your smile, brighten up my day

Yes, I am waiting for your love

Yes, I am waiting for you love

Oh I've been waiting for your love

I'm wondering where you are, are you with another guy

Are you showing him the world

I've been waiting for your love

I wanna see your smile, brighten up my day

Yes, I am waiting for your love

Yes, I am waiting for you love
