I found myself in the dark, No one's here to show me
my way
I cannot move, cannot scream, is it real or is it a dream
Trapped in a world full of pain, can't regain
What I've lost now is bound to nether world
Lights falling out as I pass
Shadow hounds reaching out for my neck
Wanna leave this mess

Suddenly I see a light in the distance
It seems that destiny has plans for me
Dreamer: Are you fake, are you real?
Insane Voice: Am I fake, Am I real?
Dreamer: Will you bleed if this,
Insane Voice: knife will cut you!
Wife: Darling, please! What is wrong?
Dreamer: What is wrong? Nothing's wrong!
Wife: Oh no! Stop it! No!
Dreamer: I have killed who made me cry, laugh, love
Now get away! Out of my head!
Insane Voice: I won't leave you,
Dreamer: The madness overcomes me
No girl's left who tended to be fake
Will I burn in hell for my sins?

What have I done
I am longing to reach my brilliant dream again
Dark and bizarre, but still I am sure
You'll be on the other side to wait for me
The madness is real, just a surreal dream,
I've lost what's been me
