Sick, it doesn't remind me of the past
Pain, this is the reason why I get lost Run, this was the only thought I could think Cause everything was disturbing me there
No, why I am so alone in here
I will scream, nevermind if anybody can Here my voice, I will shout till your ending is near an I know that there is nothing to fear

What have you done, come on stay alive
Can you feel it is back again
With all that you have ever banned, oh God Come on an rescue me, cause I'm afraid of what will come
Please run

Shit, I'm fighting against insanity
Stop, I'm not who I wanna be
Why do you let all the things come over me
How can I ever believe what I see

What you wanna hear, wanna hear, hear from me
Tell me everything, everything I wanna hear
One left to kill, left to kill, I wanna go
I won't give my life up for you

What have you done, come on stay alive
Can you feel it is back again
with all that you have ever banned, oh God
Come on an rescue me, cause I'm afraid of what will
come
Please run with me
Stop me out of control, Rape me but not my soul
We fall into the dark, you won't get a reward
