We have taken the land
of our enemies
you are inferior Bring me what I need
you praise your lord your lord that never rules anymore
you seek freedom that will never come it's so explosive
don't try to run anymore
the more you fight me
the more pain you will get to know

you are forgotten
you are so useless now
how long will it take till you see that your path is wrong

the time has come to leave this way
it would be the best to leave today
now this is your chance to get things right
to get things right
it is your chance
to stay alive

Your god has been taken your prophecys forsaken you'll bleed for your lie your hope will fade and die look for a place where you can think about maybe you can whipe out
all you doubts

Memories gone by
in my memory

Memories gone by
in my memory
Memories gone by
in my memory
but the pain remains

Memories gone by
in my memory
Memories gone by
in my memory
Memories gone by
