Tonight there's something
Out of time
My soul needs nothing to get high
I bang my head and bones are breaking through the walls

I lose my mind, I lose control
My human sense, I lose them all
The beast inside awakes and everything is burning

Don't try to stop me and my anger
No longer a stranger will chain my heart as you did
If I were you I would think how can I save myself now
Cause all my mercy is gone

I put my crawls into the ground
My voice gets a demonic sound
I start to scream and all my doubts are lost in time

I raise my head into the sky
The moon's reflected in my eye
Now I'm the one who was prisoned inside me.

Don't try to stop me and my anger
No longer a stranger will chain my heart as you did
If I were you I would think how can I save myself now
Cause all my mercy is gone

Cause it feels like a horde tonight

Oh can you see
It's not real
Can't forget

Oh can you see
It's not real
Can't forget

Tonight
