There's a little girl in the rose man's world
Look into her eyes until everything is done
Wanna become the rose man - why?
'Cause looking in her eyes
Is everything I live for

Every time - only you
She looks so bright
Enchanted by her heart
The feelings are deeper
Than I ever knew
And I am head over heels in love

Day will come for passion one
Don't betray my trust
Never forsake you, too
So the rose man told
If it's raining
If it's snowing
I will be there
I will be there close to you
So the rose man told

And I crossed her side, what a beauty in my mind
My admiring glance, her beautiful smile
From that moment she healed my wounds
Feelings are fading away
I keep only one word in my mind
Desperation
I'm head over heels in love

Day will come for passion one
Don't betray my trust
Never forsake you, too
So the rose man told
If it's raining
If it's snowing
I will be there
I will be there close to you
So the rose man told

Please baby please
I will never cease
Dreams are coming true
Love me like I do

Oh please
I will never cease
Dreams coming true
Love me like I do (3x)

Is it raining
Is it snowing
I will be there
I will be there close to you
So the rose man told

Is it raining
Is it snowing
I will be there
I will be there close to you
So the rose man told
Rose man told
