I walk up the staircase
And through the door to find the light has beat me there
It stretched across her hair
And in her eyes and she just smiles
And it's all she needs to say and I feel fine
All the moments in my life have led to this

My mouth forfeits my words
Dedication song to her

Will you walk with me?
Cause I can't see, just where I'm meant to be
Replay the scene
Over and over and never change a thing
Oh will you walk with me?

She walks down the hallway
And through the door to find the light is waiting there
And its more than I can bare to look away
And I just smile
Its all I need to say to make her to see
That it's moments just like these that I need

My mouth forfeits my words
She may not be mine, but I'm all hers

Will you walk with me?
Cause I can't see, just where I'm meant to be
Replay the scene
Over and over and never change a thing
Oh will you walk with me?

Will you walk with me?
Cause I can't see, just where I'm meant to be
Replay the scene
Over and over and never change a thing

Will you walk with me?
Cause I can't see, just where I'm meant to be
Replay the scene

Over and over and never change a thing
Oh will you walk with me?
