Pages turning
Lights are burning
See what you could not see
It's plain as the day
The night makes you pay
For what was hidden underneath

Longing to leave
But begging to feel that
Something will make you stay
Gotta believe that this all leads Somewhere we've never been

We won't run
We can fight
All that keeps us up at night
There is far to go now
Let's not waste a minute more
In denies

I always thought you knew yourself
Better than anyone
The season was lost
And you started listening
To everyone else
But cast in as devil
I've got the metal
The means to make things right
Tired of the guilt
Tired of being sorry
Well haven't we suffered enough

We won't run
We can fight
All that keeps us up at night
There is far to go now
Let's not waste a minute more
We won't run
We can fight
All that keeps us up at night
There is far to go now
Let's not waste a minute more

But oh that our eyes will be open
Oh that our eyes will be open
Oh that our eyes will be open
Oh that our eyes will be open

We won't run
We can fight
All that keeps us up at night
There is far to go now
Let's not waste a minute more

We won't fear
We can fight
All that we can bring to light
'Cos we won't run
We can fight
All that keeps us up at night
There is far to go now
Of our lives
Our lives
Our lives
Of our lives
Our lives
Our lives
