(Verse 1)

Mama was right when she said I was somethin',
I never could quite keep my feet on the ground.
So much to say never holdin' back nothin',
My heart on my sleeve with my head in the clouds.

(Bridge 1)

I want true love,
Always have always will,
And I won't give up till I feel how it feels.

(Chorus)

I've felt the butterflies,
And had the mad crush,
I've felt the earth move,
With just a single touch,
The passion in a kiss,
But what I'm wantin is...
Sweet forgiveness,
Eternally in this,
Sacred gift were given,
A love like heaven.

I'm gonna find it.

(Verse 2)

Some people tell me I'm foolish and crazy,
It's somethin so perfect it just can't exist.
They say I've been watchin' too many movies,
These great expectations have put me at risk.

(Bridge 2)

Yeah but I know better,
Always have always will,
Call me a dreamer,
But I just feel what I feel.

(Chorus)

I've felt the butterflies,
And had the mad crush,
I've felt the earth move,
With just a single touch,
The passion in a kiss,

But what I'm wantin is...
Sweet forgiveness,
Eternally in this,
Sacred gift were given,
A love like heaven.

(Bridge 3)

So I keep my cool,
I keep my faith
I know that there's a better place
Where there's no pain and hearts don't break and forever means forever baby

Oh, oh, yeah, yeah.

(Chorus)

I've felt the butterflies,
And had the mad crush,
I've felt the earth move,
With just a single touch,
The passion in a kiss,
But what I'm wantin is...
Sweet forgiveness,
Eternally in this,
Sacred gift were given,
So surrender,
Sweet and tender
Angels wings up lifting,
A love like heaven

I'm gonna find it

A love like heaven

Mmmmmmm...
