Walking down the old road
Walking in my old shoes
Eternally it seems to me
It don't matter to where I do run

I'm knocking on the same door
Gazing at the same clouds
But suddenly it seems to be so different
It feels like a change's gonna come

And now I can't wait to take off
And just fly to the sun

So if you try to stop me now
And if you come to tell me
You will hold me down
It's just because
You cannot understand
I've waited all my life
That's why I'll break my chains tonight

I'm gonna break my, break my chains

You tell me that you love me
Tell me that you need me
It ain't the truth
I'm feeling used
I'll make up my mind
And walk straight out the door

I never thought it would be so easy
To turn back no more

So if you try to stop me now
And if you come to tell me
You will hold me down
It's just because
You cannot understand
I've waited all my life

That's why I'll break my chains

And if you think this life's enough
Not more to say and even worse
Not more to love
That's just because
I have to spread my wings
And learn how to fly
That's why I'll break my chains tonight

This is the beginning not the end
And I am not afraid
I just pretend
Cause I don't wanna look like
I am stronger than anyone else here

But I can see my future bright and clear
And I can see my world with no more tears
But tell me what's a chance
If you don't take it
There's no use in a plan
If you don't make it
If you're tired of a rule
Just go out and break it

So if you try to stop me now
And if you come to tell me
You will hold me down
And learn how to fly
I'm gonna break my chains

I'm gonna break my chains
I'm gonna break my chains tonight
