Hello morning light
I cannot fight the feeling something has changed
I'm lying in my bed
And I feel a second heartbeat in my veins

The sky's more blue than yesterday
The grass is green and high
The sun sends out her warmest dreams
To welcome you my child

Every time that I think of you
I feel a love that's so strong and true
I know when you arrive
You'll have your daddy's eyes

Every time that I'm feeling blue
I sit right back and I think of you
That's when I realize
You'll have your daddy's eyes

Hello beautiful
Your face is like a mirror of my dreams
I hold you in my arms
And life is just a careless song to me

Your daddy won't be home tonight
He's on a distant road
I'll sing a little lullaby
And hope he'll soon be home

Every time that I look at you
I feel a love that's so strong and true
And I'm hypnotized
You got your daddy's eyes

Every time that I'm feeling blue
I take a long loving look at you
And you look so nice
You got your daddy's eyes

We live to learn that life
Just like footsteps in the sand

But that seems so far away
When you hold my finger in your hand
I'll be your mother and your friend, oh

Every time that I look at you
I feel a love that's so strong and true
And I'm hypnotized
You got your daddy's eyes

Every time that I'm feeling blue
I take a long loving look at you
And you look so nice
You got your daddy's eyes

Every time that I look at you
I feel a love that's so strong and true
And I'm hypnotized
You got your daddy's eyes

Every time that I'm feeling blue
I take a long loving look at you
And you look so nice
You got your daddy's eyes
