Verse 1:

You don't get what you're giving
And the harder they climb the softer they fall Only time can not heal this and i learned that sometimes two eyes dont see better than one

Bridge:

because what people say and people do it doesn't fit together but you and me
is me and you

Chorus.

So let's take it back to what we once had to our love we'll be returning and we keep the fire burning

And it will not go out
we will stand all doubts we can't stop the world from turning but we keep the fire burning let's take it back keep the fire burning

Verse 2.

Judge a book by it's cover and speak your famous words worthwhile the loser takes all gone today. here tomorrow when I look in your face its like yor're a million in one and there for...

Bride:

theres more to say theres more to do

we'll never mind the weather

The strength i need is the strength in you

Chorus:

So let's take it back
to what we once had
to our love we'll be retuning

And it will not go out
we can't stop the world from turnin
but we keep the fire burning

Part C:

Everyone has to find something good and something right. cos we only got this one short life I'll never let you leave my side From now on we will live our lives as one

Chorus:

So let's take it back
to what we once had to our love we'll be returnin

And it will not go out
we'll keep the fire burning

So let's take it back
to what we once had
