hah....
thank you
oh..oh... and there's no greater love there's no greater choice and when i felt you like growing inside of me oh god has given me a gift so precious he must have made you from the cloud and angle's wings

(now that you come into my life)
(without you i know i cant survive) no... cuz you're the reason that i live each day and i wanna thank you for all that you are thank you for being my light when it's dark thank you for bringing me choir each day im loving you more than any words can say thank you for giving my life a new song giving me reason to wanna stay strong thank you for everything that you've done you're my life my soul my sun you've come and changed my life that's why i feel inside is the choir i know would never have before and though i made mistake there's something you should know i dedicate my love my life to you

(now that you come into my life)
(without you i know i cant survive) you're the reason that i live each day

thank you for bringing me choir each day
im loving you more than any words can say

(x4)

i wanna..thank you!
