Summertime has come and gone
I had you here by my side
The autumn wind was blowing strong
I grabbed your arm, held you tight

Now the air is getting cold at night
And you say you have to leave
On the weather report there is
No Christmas in white
But it's you and the snow that I need

Why does it rain on Christmas?
When I'm wishing for some snow
Why can't you stay, if you'll miss me?
Do you really have to go?
I know when Santa Claus is coming
He will give me something
But all I need is you and the snow
Why does it rain on Christmas?
I don't know, I don't know

Everyone is having fun
But I just can't realize
How can this life go on and on
Without you here by my side

Now the air is getting cold at night
And you say you have to leave
On the weather report there is
No Christmas in white
But it's you and the snow that I need

Why does it rain on Christmas?
When I'm wishing for some snow
Why can't you stay, if you'll miss me?
Do you really have to go?
I know when Santa Claus is coming
He will give me something
But all I need is you and the snow
Why does it rain on Christmas?

I just want to feel snowflakes

Falling down on my skin
Build a snowman on Christmas
Let the winter begin

We'll be walking together
'Cross the ice on the lake
If it can't last forever
Give me only one day
If it can't last forever
Give me only one day, Ooaooh, Ooaah

I know when Santa Claus is coming
He will give me something
But all I need is you and the snow
Why does it rain on Christmas?
Rain on Christmas, why does it rain?
Mmh, I don't know, Oooh, I don't know
Mmh, I don't know, I don't know
